WELCOME TO STUDIES IN LINGUISTICS DURING THE SPRING SEMESTER 2019

This information is intended for students who have been admitted or admitted with condition to one or several courses in Linguistics and/or Cognitive Semiotics for the spring semester 2019. You can see which course or what courses you have been admitted to on "My pages" at www.antagning.se. An admission is valid on condition that you fulfil the eligibility requirements for the course when it starts. If you have questions about the requirements, please contact the study counsellor.

The first meeting/lesson of each course is as follows (date, time, venue and course website). Please contact the course administrator (Gunilla Ek Werner, tel. 046-2228710, email: gunilla.ek_werner@sol.lu.se) if you are unable to attend the first (mandatory) meeting.

As there might still be a need of late changes to the schedules, please check the schedule on the home page again before course start. Should any changes to the below mentioned start dates occur, we will notify you in a separate email.

Registration: It is important that you register for the course in advance. This is done via www.student.lu.se, using your student account (see link below). In case you have problems with registration – tell us at the introduction meeting and we will try to solve it then.

How to find us?

Please note that we use a course platform, LUVIT (<https://luvit.education.lu.se/>) and that you need to activate your Student account to be able to log in.

We are looking forward to having you as our student.

Welcome!
