Welcome to the Department of History at Lund University!

Congratulations on your admission – we're delighted that you've been accepted to one of our courses!

We look forward to supporting you throughout your studies and hope you'll enjoy your time with us.

To secure your place, there are a few important things you need to do:

Register on time

You must register online in the Student Portal no later than the date stated in your admission letter.

See: Introduction Meetings Autumn 2025 (<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/interested-in-studying-history/application-and-admission/introduction-meetings-autumn-2025/>)

If you are unable to register online, you must contact us before the registration deadline. E-mail the administrator: hist@hist.lu.se

If you do not register in time, your place may be offered to another student.

Mandatory introduction meeting

You are required to attend the introduction meeting. Time and location are stated in your admission letter. See: Introduction Meetings Autumn 2025

(<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/interested-in-studying-history/application-and-admission/introduction-meetings-autumn-2025/>)

If you cannot attend, you must notify us in advance. E-mail the administrator: hist@hist.lu.se

If you are absent without notifying us, your place may be given to another student.

Find your course information

You'll find all essential course information on the course webpage:

Courses by Semester – Autumn 2025 (<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/courses-by-semester/historia/HT2025/>)

There you'll find:

- Schedule
- Reading lists
- Course syllabus
- Library resources
- Direct link to Canvas

We look forward to meeting you and wish you an inspiring and rewarding autumn semester 2025!
